Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Charles W. Hallstrom has been a loyal citizen of the state of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Charles W. Hallstrom started working with State Radio Communications at Webster, South Dakota, on January 1, 1956; and,

WHEREAS, After 30 years of service, Charles retired from employment with the state in December of 1986; and,

WHEREAS, During these thirty years, Charles and his wife Margaret had seven children, which so far has resulted in 12 lovely grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, On February 20, there will be a celebration in Webster by family and friends to honor Charles; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of exemplary South Dakotans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 20, 1987, as in South Dakota.

CHARLES W. HALLSTROM DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE